A LETTER FROM OUR CEO, RIC PAYNE

Hello,

I'm often asked the question what does Principa do?

Put simply, we help accountants' around the world build and run better practices. To put that another way, we help accountants build a firm that is more productive, more fun, more profitable and more valuable.

It has always amazed me how wide the gulf is between the best performing firms (measured in terms of profit per owner) and the rest. Typically the "best" are achieving twice what the "rest" are.

This is despite the fact that they're all servicing essentially the same type of clients, using the same technology and the same skill sets from more or less the same type of employees. The best performers are not always the biggest firms, in fact there is very little evidence of economies of scale in the accounting services sector.

My team at Principa and I have created a suite of tools and resources that will help you take your firm from good to great. You'll benefit from the work we've done with literally thousands of accountants' around the world (first with my former company Results Accountants' Systems and now with Principa).

You'll also benefit from our understanding of what works and what doesn't. That translates to your learning curve being much less steep when you work with us.

Everything I have learned from the many, many talented people I've had the pleasure and honor of working with is encapsulated in the Accountants' Boot Camp™ and Principa's suite of tools and resources.

Our goal is, quite simply, to help you create a practice that will enable you to repeat the words of one of our clients, Michael O'Kelley.

In a note to us he said ...

"There is nothing more gratifying than seeing your plans and aspirations come to life. Perhaps more to the point, there is nothing more professionally gratifying than to have your clients tell you how much they appreciate the work you do for them AND being so willing to strongly refer you to their friends and associates."

Michael's words capture the essence of what we are all about. We want to help you realize your full potential as a professional accountant. We want to help you create a firm that your clients truly value, one that they are willing to refer to their friends and associates.

We want to help you get your "zest" back for what you do. That will mean a bigger bottom line for you but we also know that at the end of the day, your reputation is the ultimate measure of professionalism so our focus is on helping you build a big future and an even bigger reputation as a business advisor.

In these rapidly changing times, opportunities abound - no matter what the state the economy. In a struggling economy you have the opportunity to help your clients survive and in a strengthening economy you can help them grow and prosper.

I'm certain there are good times ahead for this profession. Just how good will depend entirely on how aggressively you seize the moment.

With that in mind, I invite you to be a part of the Principa Alliance and reap the personal and professional rewards for many years to come. I look forward to working with you.

Ric Payne, President & CEO, Principa
